

BWV_55, Ich armer Mensch, ich Sünderknecht

1. ARIA
Yo pobre mortal, yo siervo del pecado
voy en la Presencia de Dios con temor y temblor al juicio.
[Dios] es justo, yo [soy] injusto.
¡Yo pobre mortal, yo siervo del pecado!

2. RECITATIVO

3. ARIA

Ten misericordia,
deja que las lágrimas Te ablanden,
deja que Te alcancen a Tí al Corazón, ¡ten misericordia!
Ten misericordia,
que por [amor] de Jesucristo
Tu ira de Entusiasmo se calme,
¡ten misericordia!

Twenty-second Sunday after The Holy Trinity

Epistle: Philippians 1: 3-11 Gospel: Matthew 18: 21-35

1. ARIA

I poor mortal, I sin's servant,
I go in God's Presence
with fear and quaking to the judgment.
[God] is righteous, I [am] unrighteous.
I poor mortal, I sin's servant!

2. RECITATIVE

I have against God behaved
and am that same path,
with which [God] to me has provided,
not changing toward.
Where hence? shall I the morning red Psalms 139: 7-10
 wings
for my flight escape,
which me to the last sea
 sent,
so will me though the Hand of the [Creator] find
and to me the sins' rods bind.
Ah indeed!
if alike the hell a bed
for me and my sins had,
so would be though the anger of the Highest there.
The earth shelters me not,
it threatens, me horrible creature to
 devour;
and intend I me to the Heaven
 to soar,
there dwells God, who to me the verdict speaks.

3. ARIA

Have mercy,
let the tears soften You,
let them to You to Heart reach,
have mercy!
Have mercy,
let for Jesu Christ's sake
Your Anger of Eagerness be stilled,
have mercy!

4. RECITATIVO

¡Ten misericordia!
 Sin embargo, ahora me consuelo,
 no soportaré el juicio
 y más bien ante de Trono de Gracia
 a mi gentil [Creador] irá.
 Sostengo ante [Dios] el Hijo [de Dios], la Pasión [de Jesú], la Redención [de Jesú], cómo [Jesú] por mi pecado
 ha pagado y lo suficientemente ha hecho,
 y ruego a [Dios] paciencia,
 de ahora en adelante no lo haré más.
 Así que Dios me recibe en Gracia
 de nuevo.

5. CORAL

Soy yo igualmente de Ti cayendo,
 me enfocó de nuevo;
 nos tiene aunque Tu Hijo reconciliado
 a través de la Agonía [de Jesú] y el Dolor
 de la Muerte. No niego el pecado, pero Tu Gracia y Favor
 es mucho mayor que el pecado, que en todo momento dentro de mi encuentro.

Werde munter, mein Gemüte Johann Rist (1642) Estrofa 6

4. RECITATIVE

Have mercy!
 Yet now I comfort myself,
 I will not for trial stand and rather before the Throne of Grace
 to my gentle [Creator] go.
 I hold before [God] [God's] Son, [Jesu's] Passion, [Jesu's] Redemption,
 how [Jesu] for my sin
 repaid and enough done,
 and beg [God] for patience,
 henceforth will I it not more do.
 So receives God me into Grace
 again.

5. CHORALE

Am I similarly from You falling away, focus I me though again;
 has to us though Your Son reconciled through [Jesu's] Agony and Death's Pain.
 I do not deny the sin,
 but Your Grace and Favor
 is far greater than the sin, which I at all times within me find.

Werde munter, mein Gemüte Johann Rist (1642) Stanza 6