KING ARTHUR

This November, Kairos will present two special concert performances of English Baroque composer Henry Purcell’s 1691 semi-opera King Arthur, with orchestra. This whimsical tale centers around Arthur’s endeavors to rescue his fiancée, the blind Cornish princess Emmeline, who has been abducted by Arthur’s arch-enemy, the Saxon king Oswald of Kent. It is a delightful and humorous work, containing some of Purcell’s most lyrical music, much of it inspired by French dance rhythms and adventurous harmonies.

As was common in English semi-opera, there were spoken as well as sung parts, and our performances will also feature a delightful narration of the story.

Performances are:

- Saturday, November 5, 8PM: Christ Episcopal Church, Poughkeepsie
- Sunday, November 6, 4PM: Holy Cross Monastery, West Park

Tickets are $20 general admission; $15 senior; and $7 Student/Youth, with $25 general admission on the day of the concert. You may purchase tickets by calling 845-256-9114 or visiting our website: www.kairosconsort.org
